Adam Farber is an Associate at Younger Partners, specializing in tenant representation for industrial, retail, and office properties. His tenure with Younger Partners began in May 2022, and he has been instrumental in assisting clients in finding the ideal spaces to meet their business needs. With prior internships at Younger Partners in 2019 and 2022, Adam demonstrated a strong foundation in marketing, property analysis, and tenant sourcing. In addition to his Younger Partners experience, Adam also interned at Capital Commercial Investments, contributing to a diverse team's efforts on a $150 million current placement strategy for new acquisition opportunities.

Adam Farber's dedication to excellence and his diverse skill set make him a valuable member of the Younger Partners team, while his commitment to delivering tailored solutions to clients underscores his growing influence in the real estate industry.
